PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
JUNE 9, 2005

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

This Proxy Statement is furnished to stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Ultralife Batteries, Inc. (the "Company") for use at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Meeting") to be held on Thursday, June 9, 2005, at 10:30 A.M. and at any adjournments thereof. The Meeting will be held at the offices of the Company, 2000 Technology Parkway, Newark, New York 14513.

The approximate date on which the enclosed form of proxy and this Proxy Statement are first being sent to stockholders of the Company is May 3, 2005.

When a proxy is returned properly signed, the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the stockholder's directions. If the proxy is signed and returned without choices having been specified, the shares will be voted FOR the election of each director-nominee named herein, and FOR the other proposal identified herein. If for any reason any of the nominees for election as directors shall become unavailable for election, discretionary authority may be exercised by the proxies to vote for substitute nominees proposed by the Board of Directors of the Company. A stockholder has the right to revoke a previously granted proxy at any time before it is voted by filing with the Secretary of the Company a written notice of revocation, or a duly executed later-dated proxy, or by requesting return of the proxy at the Meeting and voting in person.

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on April 19, 2005 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Meeting. As of April 19, 2005, there were 14,419,612 shares of the Company's Common Stock, par value $.10 per share ("Common Stock"), issued and outstanding, each entitled to one vote per share at the Meeting. A majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law, directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote at the Meeting. Because directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast, withholding authority to vote with respect to one or more nominees will have no effect on the outcome of the election, although such shares would be counted as present for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum. Similarly, any broker non-votes (which occur when shares held by brokers or nominees for beneficial owners are voted on some matters but not on others in the absence of instructions from the beneficial owner) are not considered to be votes cast and therefore would have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors, although they would be counted for quorum purposes. The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock represented at the Meeting and voting on the proposal to ratify the selection of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is required for approval of that proposal. Accordingly, abstentions and any broker non-votes, since they are not considered to be votes cast, would have no effect on the outcome of this proposal, although they would be counted for quorum purposes.

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by use of the mails, some of the officers, directors and regular employees of the Company, without extra remuneration, may solicit proxies personally or by telephone, telefax or similar transmission. The Company will reimburse record holders for expenses in forwarding proxies and proxy soliciting material to the beneficial owners of the shares held by them.

Effective December 31, 2002, the Company changed its fiscal year-end from June 30 to December 31. The calendar year periods ended December 31, 2003 and 2004 are referred to as "2003" and "2004", respectively. The six month period ended December 31, 2002 for which certain information is presented in this Proxy Statement is referred to as the "Transition Period." Full 12-month fiscal periods that ended June 30 prior to the Transition Period are referred to as "Fiscal" years. For instance, the year ended June 30, 2002 is referred to as Fiscal 2002.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

General

Pursuant to the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the state under which the Company was organized, and the Company's By-laws, the Company's business, property and affairs are managed by or under the direction of our Board of Directors. Members of the Board of Directors are kept informed of Company business through discussions with the Company's Chief Executive Officer and other corporate officers, by reviewing materials provided to them and by participating in meetings of the Board and its committees. The Board of Directors has four standing committees: an Executive Committee, an Audit and Finance Committee, a Governance Committee and a Compensation and Management Committee. During 2004, the Board of Directors held five meetings and the standing committees of the Board of Directors held a total of 18 meetings.

Each director attended at least 75% of the aggregate of: (1) the total number of meetings of the Board (held during the period for which such person has been a director); and (2) the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board on which such member served.

The Board of Directors has adopted a charter for each of the four standing committees that addresses the composition and function of each committee and has also adopted corporate governance principles that address the composition and function of the Board of Directors. These charters and corporate governance principles are available on the Company's website at www.ultralifebatteries.com under the heading "Investor Relations", and the Audit and Finance Committee Charter, which was amended on April 26, 2005, is also included as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

The Board of Directors has determined that all of the directors who serve on these committees (other than Mr. Kavazanjian who sits on the Executive Committee) are "independent" for purposes of the Nasdaq corporate governance listing standards, and that the members of the Audit and Finance Committee are also "independent" for purposes of Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). The Board of Directors based these determinations primarily on a review of the responses of the directors to questions regarding employment, compensation history, affiliations and family and other relationships, and on follow-up discussions.

Committees of the Board

Executive Committee

The current members of the Executive Committee are Ranjit C. Singh (Chair), Patricia C. Barron, Anthony J. Cavanna, Daniel W. Christman and John D. Kavazanjian. Abeles, a former director who did not stand for re-election at our 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, was a member of our Executive Committee when he was on our Board. This committee is responsible for overseeing such matters as the Board of Directors determines from time to time and takes action in between regularly scheduled meetings of our Board of Directors when it is infeasible to convene the entire Board. The Executive Committee did not meet during 2004.

Audit and Finance Committee

The current members of the Audit and Finance Committee are Anthony J. Cavanna (Chair), Paula H. J. Cholmondeley, Carl H. Rosner and Ranjit C. Singh. Joseph C. Abeles, a former director who did not stand for re-election at our 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, was a member of our Audit and Finance Committee when he was on our Board. This committee selects the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and has oversight responsibility for reviewing the scope and results of the independent registered public accounting firm's annual examination of the Company's financial statements and the quality and integrity of those financial statements, the qualifications and independence of the independent registered public accounting firm, meeting with the Company's financial management and the independent registered public accounting firm to review matters relating to internal accounting controls, the Company's accounting practices and procedures and other matters relating to the financial condition of the Company. The Audit and Finance Committee met nine times during 2004.

The Board of Directors has determined that each of the members of the Audit and Finance Committee is "financially literate" in accordance with Nasdaq corporate governance listing standards. In addition, the Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Cavanna qualifies as an "Audit Committee Financial Expert" as defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K.

Governance Committee

The members of the Governance Committee are currently Patricia C. Barron (Chair), Paula H. J. Cholmondeley and Daniel W. Christman. Ranjit C. Singh was a member of the Governance Committee during 2004 until the composition of that committee was changed at the annual Board meeting. This committee reviews the performance of the Company's directors, makes recommendations to the Board of Directors for membership and committee assignments and manages the annual evaluation of the performance of the Company's Chief Executive Officer. The Governance Committee met five times during 2004.

Compensation and Management Committee

The current members of the Compensation and Management Committee are Daniel W. Christman (Chair), Patricia C. Barron and Anthony J. Cavanna. Joseph C. Abeles, a former director who did not stand for re-election at our 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, was a member of our Compensation and Management Committee when he was on our Board. The Compensation and Management Committee has general responsibility for recommending to the Board of Directors remuneration for the Chairman and determining the remuneration of other officers elected by the Board of Directors, granting stock options and otherwise administering the Company's stock option plans, and approving and administering any other compensation plans or agreements. Our 2004 Long-Term Incentive Plan is administered by the Compensation and Management Committee. The Compensation and Management Committee met four times during 2004.

Stockholder Recommendations for Director Nominations

As noted above, the Governance Committee considers and establishes procedures regarding recommendations for nomination to the Board of Directors, including nominations submitted by stockholders. Such recommendations should be sent to the Company, to the attention of the Corporate Secretary, Ultralife Batteries, Inc., 2000 Technology Parkway, Newark, New York 14513. Any recommendations submitted to the Corporate Secretary should be in writing and should include any supporting material the stockholder considers appropriate in support of that recommendation, but must include the information that would be required under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of such candidate and a signed consent of the candidate to serve as a director of the Company, if elected. The Governance Committee evaluates all potential candidates in the same manner, regardless of the source of the recommendation.

Table of Contents

Based on the information provided to the Governance Committee, it will make an initial determination whether to conduct a full evaluation of a candidate. As part of the full evaluation process, the Governance Committee may conduct interviews, obtain additional background information and conduct reference checks of candidates. The Governance Committee may also ask the candidate to meet with management and other members of the Board of Directors. In evaluating a candidate, the Board, with the assistance of the Governance Committee, takes into account a variety of factors as described in the Company's Corporate Governance Principles.

Annual Meeting Attendance

The Company's policy is that all of the directors, absent special circumstances, should attend the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders. A regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors is typically scheduled in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. All directors, other than Ms. Cholmondeley who was elected at that meeting, attended last year's Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Executive Sessions

Our Corporate Governance Principles require our Board of Directors to meet in executive session regularly by requiring our independent directors to have at least four regularly-scheduled meetings per year without any management present. Our Board of Directors met in executive session five times during 2004.

Communicating with the Board of Directors

Stockholders interested in communicating directly with the Board of Directors as a group may do so in writing to the Company's Corporate Secretary, Ultralife Batteries, Inc., 2000 Technology Parkway, Newark, New York 14513. The Corporate Secretary will review all such correspondence and forward to the Board of Directors a summary of that correspondence and copies of any correspondence that, in his opinion, deals with the functions of the Board of Directors or that he otherwise determines requires their attention. Directors may at any time review a log of all correspondence received by the Company that is addressed to members of the Board of Directors and request copies of any such correspondence. Any concerns relating to accounting, internal controls or auditing matters will be brought to the attention of the Audit and Finance Committee and handled in accordance with the procedures established by the Audit and Finance Committee with respect to such matters.

Code of Ethics

The Company has a Code of Ethics applicable to all employees, including the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, and, to the extent it applies to their activities, all members of the Board of Directors. Our Code of Ethics incorporates the elements of a code of ethics specified in Item 406 of Regulation S-K and also complies with Nasdaq requirements for a code of conduct. Stockholders can find a link to this Code of Ethics on the Company's website at www.ultralifebatteries.com under the heading "Investor Relations". The Company intends to post amendments to or waivers (express or implied) from the Code of Ethics (to the extent applicable to the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer) at the same location on the Company's website as the Code of Ethics.

DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

In 2003, the Company retained The Carter Group to perform a comparative analysis of the compensation of the Company's Board of Directors. The Carter Group compared total compensation, cash and equity-based, received by the Company's directors with that received by directors of companies with similar profiles based on products and markets. That analysis concluded that our Company's directors were undercompensated on a comparative basis and that an increase in their cash and equity compensation was warranted. Taking into account the recommendations of The Carter Group, the Board of Directors increased cash compensation for 2004 as more specifically set forth below and chose not to increase equity compensation.

Directors' Cash Compensation

During 2003, each non-employee director received a $2,000 quarterly retainer, and the Chairman of the Board received a $3,750 quarterly retainer. Each non-employee director also received $750 for each Board meeting attended; subject, however, to the provision that the meeting compensation was reduced by 50% if the director participated by conference call. In addition, each committee member received $500 for each committee meeting attended, whether in person or by conference call, and each committee chair, other than Mr. Kavazanjian, received an annual retainer of $2,500. For Board and committee service during 2003, the Company paid its directors an aggregate $86,000.

Pursuant to changes in director compensation that became effective January 1, 2004, each non-employee director received during 2004 a $3,000 quarterly retainer, and the Chairman of the Board received a $5,000 quarterly retainer. Each non-employee director also received $1,000 for each Board meeting attended; subject, however, to the provision that the meeting compensation was reduced by 50% if the director participated by conference call. Each non-employee director also received $750 for each committee meeting attended, whether in person or by conference call. The Chairman of the Audit and Finance Committee received a $1,250 quarterly retainer, and the Chairmen of the Governance and Compensation and Management Committees each received a $625 quarterly retainer. For Board and committee service during 2004, the Company paid its directors an aggregate $158,000.

Directors' Options

In addition, during 2004, each incumbent non-employee director received options at the end of each calendar quarter to purchase an aggregate 3,000 shares of Common Stock. The Chairman of our Board of Directors received an additional 2,000 share option at the end of each calendar quarter. All options vest immediately and have a term of seven years from the date of grant and were granted at an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Common Stock on the date of grant. In accordance with a policy adopted in December 2003, upon their appointment or election, newly appointed or elected directors receive an option for twice the number of shares subject to the normal quarterly option grant and thereafter receive their normal quarterly option grants. Options for an aggregate 20,000 shares were granted on March 31, 2004 at an exercise price of $21.28 per share, an option for 6,000 shares was granted to a new director on June 10, 2004 at an exercise price of $18.64 per share, options for an aggregate 17,000 shares were granted on June 30, 2004 at an exercise price of $19.36 per share, options for an aggregate 20,000 shares were granted on September 30, 2004 at an exercise price of $10.17 per share, and options for an aggregate 20,000 shares were granted on December 31, 2004 at an exercise price of $19.45 per share.

REPORT OF COMPENSATION AND MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE CONCERNING EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Overview

The Company's Compensation and Management Committee establishes and implements the Company's executive compensation policy and makes decisions regarding specific levels of compensation for the Company's executive management team. All three of our directors who sit on the committee are non-employee directors of Ultralife, as defined for certain SEC purposes, and are also independent in accordance with standards established for Nasdaq listed companies.

The Company's executive compensation program has been constructed to promote the growth of Company profitability and the corresponding enhancement of stockholder value. The Company seeks to provide executive compensation that will support the achievement of the Company's financial goals while attracting and retaining talented executives and rewarding superior performance. The Company seeks to provide an overall level of compensation to the Company's executives that is competitive within the Company's industry and with other companies of comparable size and complexity. Compensation in any particular case may vary from the industry average on the basis of annual and long-term Company performance as well as individual performance. The committee will exercise its discretion to set compensation where, in its judgment, external, internal or individual circumstances warrant it.

The committee will, on occasion, retain an outside compensation consultant to assist the committee in assessing the competitiveness of the Company's overall executive compensation as well as to supplement the information otherwise available to the committee in making its compensation decisions. The committee did not retain any compensation consultant for purposes of setting 2004 compensation levels. Consistent with past years, the committee evaluated the adequacy of overall compensation as well as the sufficiency of each of the components of executive compensation.

In general, the Company compensates its executive officers through a combination of salary, incentive bonus, stock option awards and certain employee benefits.

Salary

Of the primary elements of executive compensation set forth above, salary is generally the least affected by the Company's performance, although it very much depends on individual performance. Executive salaries for Fiscal 2002 were, however, adversely affected by the Company's performance. Executives, at the recommendation of the committee and in a cooperative effort to conserve the Company's cash resources, reduced their salaries initially by 20% during Fiscal 2002, which reduction was then followed by an across-the-board increase so that the Company's executives were receiving at the end of 2003 90% of their then base salaries. During June of 2004, the committee, in recognition of enhanced Company financial performance, and in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer about his performance assessment of the Company's executive officers, adjusted base salary levels upward from where they stood at the end of 2003, but still mandated that the executives receive actual payment of 90% of their new base salaries. The committee believes that the base salaries paid to its executives are competitive with industry norms. The salary levels and any increases in salary of all executive officers of the Company must be approved by the committee. Salary levels for executives are determined by progress made in the operational and functional areas for which the executives are responsible as well as the overall profitability of the Company.

Executives' salaries are reviewed periodically, but at least annually. The timing and amount of any salary increase to executives both depend upon (i) the performance of the individual and, (ii) to a lesser extent, the financial performance of the Company.

In March 2005, the committee, effective January 1, 2005, abolished the requirement that the actual payment of salary to the Company's executives equal 90% of their stated base salaries. The effect of this decision is that for 2005, all of the Company's executives will receive 100% of their stated base salaries.

Incentive Bonus

In addition to receiving salary, Company executives have been eligible to receive a quarterly cash bonus based upon the financial performance of the Company measured against budgeted targets. Each year, the Board approves budgeted financial targets for the end of each fiscal quarter and determines the manner in which executive bonus compensation will be calculated. For 2004, if the Company met the pre-established earnings targets at the end of each quarter, the executives would receive a bonus at the end of each quarter in an amount equal to the dollar amount that would have the effect of reinstating the executive's base salary for that quarter to 100% of the executive's base salary then in effect. If the Company exceeded those pre-established earnings targets, the executives would receive an additional bonus equal to either 5%, 10% or 15% of the executive's base salary in effect for that quarter, depending on the amount by which the actual quarterly earnings exceeded the target earnings. In addition to bonuses based on pre-established earnings targets, executives were also eligible to receive discretionary bonuses based on individual performance.

In March 2005, the committee, at the same time it abolished the 90% of base salary requirement, decided to eliminate the quarterly percentage bonus based on pre-established earnings targets. The committee has agreed to re-evaluate the Company's bonus program and recommend a new bonus policy to the Board of Directors at a future meeting. Until a new policy is put into effect, the committee will not be authorizing any bonuses in 2005.

Stock Options

Stock options are designed to provide long-term incentives and rewards, tied to the price of the Company's Common Stock. Given the vagaries of the stock market, stock price performance and financial performance are not always consistent. Stock options provide executives with an opportunity to increase their ownership in the Company and share in any increase in the value of the Company's Common Stock acquired on the exercise of the options. The committee believes that stock options, which provide value to the participants only when the Company's stockholders benefit from stock price appreciation, are an appropriate complement to the Company's overall compensation policies. Executive officers of the Company are eligible to receive option grants under the Company's long-term incentive plan.

The decision to award any additional stock options to an executive is based upon such considerations as the executive's position with the Company and is designed to be competitive for individuals at that level. The committee administers the Company's long-term incentive plan. Any options for more than 10,000 shares require approval of the full Board of Directors.

Employee Benefit Plans

Executives of the Company are each entitled to participate in or receive benefits under any pension plan, profit-sharing plan, life insurance plan, health insurance plan or other employee benefit plan made available by the Company to its executives and employees. The Company also provides Mr. Kavazanjian with supplemental life insurance ($700,000 coverage in addition to $300,000 of basic coverage) and supplemental disability insurance. Currently, the Company provides medical insurance for its executive officers and has established the 401(k) Plan. All executive officers and employees are eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan. In 2004, the Company made available to its executive officers certain financial planning and tax return preparation services, the cost of which would be borne by the Company. The Company agreed to fund up to $3,000 per executive for financial planning services and up to $750 per executive for tax return preparation services.

Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Kavazanjian joined the Company in July 1999, and received non-statutory stock options for 500,000 shares as described earlier in this Proxy Statement. Mr. Kavazanjian exercised options for 225,000 of those shares in 2004 and executed a 10b5-1 trading plan in December 2004 pursuant to which he will exercise the balance of those options on or before July 12, 2005. The 2004 exercises generated income to him that was not deductible by the Company pursuant to Code Section 162(m). Mr.

Table of Contents

Kavazanjian and the Company entered into a new employment agreement in September 2002, the principal terms of which are described earlier in this Proxy Statement. In reviewing the performance of the Chief Executive Officer, the committee considers the scope and complexity of his job during the past year, progress made in planning for the future development and growth and return on assets of the Company. As with other executives of the Company, Mr. Kavazanjian received 90% of his base salary and was entitled to receive bonus compensation during 2004 on the same terms as other executives, except that in the event the Company exceeded the pre-established quarterly earnings targets, Mr. Kavazanjian's bonus would be calculated upon 10%, 20% and 30% of his base salary. Based on this bonus approach, Mr. Kavazanjian received an overall bonus of $62,001 for 2004 performance. In addition, Mr. Kavazanjian received two new options for an aggregate 50,000 shares on December 7, 2004, which options have seven-year terms and exercise prices of $15.05 per share. The 26,576 share option was designated an incentive stock option and vested immediately with respect to 6,644 shares on the grant date and vests with respect to the same number of shares on each of the next three anniversaries of the grant date. The 23,424 share option is a non-statutory option which vested immediately with respect to 13,356 shares on the grant date and vests with respect to 3,356 shares on each of the next three anniversaries of the grant date. By action taken in March 2005 with respect to all of the Company's executives, Mr. Kavazanjian, effective January 1, 2005, began receiving payment of 100% of his stated base salary.

Code Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally limits to $1,000,000 the amount of compensation the Company can deduct in any year with respect to each of its five highest compensated executives. Certain compensation that qualifies as "performance-based compensation" is not subject to the Section 162(m) limitation. The Company's compensatory arrangements typically do not trigger any Section 162(m) concerns. However, during 2004, and during 2005, Mr. Kavazanjian has exercised or will exercise certain non-statutory stock options which generated or will generate compensation to him greater than $1,000,000 which, under Code Section 162(m), did not qualify as performance-based compensation, and would therefore limit the Company's ability to deduct amounts greater than $1,000,000.

The committee intends to structure its executive compensation and all of its various non-salary components in a way that they will qualify as performance-based compensation pursuant to Section 162(m). Certain unanticipated events, however, could result in a disallowance of compensation deductions. In addition, the committee may, when it deems it to be in the Company's best interests, provide for executive compensation that is not deductible pursuant to Section 162(m).

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares the cumulative return to holders of the Company's Common Stock for the period commencing June 30, 1999 through the end of 2004 with the NASDAQ U.S. Index and the NASDAQ Electronic Components Index for the same period. The comparison assumes $100 was invested on June 30, 1999 in the Company's Common Stock and in each of the comparison groups, and assumes reinvestment of dividends. The Company paid no dividends during the comparison period. As stated earlier, in December 2002 the Company changed its fiscal year end from June 30 to December 31. Accordingly, the data shown at December 31, 2002 reflects the Transition Period.

All members of the Committee shall be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including the Company’s balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement. The Committee has, and will continue to have, at least one member who has accounting or related financial management expertise, and who shall be an “audit committee financial expert” as defined by the SEC. In carrying out their Committee responsibilities, members of the Committee are not providing any expert or special assurance as to the Company’s financial statements or any professional certification as to the Independent Auditor’s work. Committee members may enhance their familiarity with finance and accounting by participating in educational programs conducted by the Company or an outside consultant.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board at the Company’s Annual Meeting of the Board or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. The members of the Committee may be removed by the Board at any time. The Committee will be chaired by an Independent Director appointed by the Board.

III. Duties and Responsibilities.

Responsibility for the Company's financial statements rests primarily with management and the Independent Auditor, and both the internal auditor of the Company and the Independent Auditor are responsible for conducting audits. Nonetheless, the Committee shall have the following authority and responsibilities:

Independent Auditor

Appointment and Oversight. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the Independent Auditor with the understanding that the Independent Auditor must report directly to the Committee. The Committee shall make it clear to the Independent Auditor that the Independent Auditor is ultimately accountable to the Committee as the representative of the Company's stockholders.

Scope of Service. The Committee shall meet with the Independent Auditor and financial management of the Company to understand the scope and associated fees of the proposed audit for the current year and the audit procedures to be utilized, and at the conclusion thereof discuss any comments or recommendations of the Independent Auditors.

Evaluation. The Committee shall, no less than annually (including at the time it appoints the Independent Auditor), evaluate the Independent Auditor's qualifications, performance and independence. This evaluation shall include the review and evaluation of the lead partner of the Independent Auditor firm. In making its evaluation, the Committee shall take into account the opinions of management and the Company's internal auditor. The Committee shall report its findings to the Board.

The Committee shall receive and review, at least annually, a report from the Independent Auditor relating to the Independent Auditor's independence and quality of the Independent Auditor's internal controls. The report shall describe (a) the Independent Auditor's internal quality-control procedures, (b) any material issues raised by the most recent peer review or internal quality-control review of the Independent Auditor, (c) any material issues raised by any governmental or professional authority and any inquiry or investigation, within the preceding five years, regarding any independent audit carried out by the Independent Auditor, and (d) any steps taken to deal with any issues raised in connection with clauses (b) and (c) above. In addition, to assist the Committee in assessing the independence of the Independent Auditor, the report shall describe all relationships between the Independent Auditor and the Company (including any significant fees for any anticipated non-audit services).

Independent Auditor Plan. The Committee shall review with the Independent Auditor and management the plan and scope of the Independent Auditor's proposed annual financial audit and quarterly reviews, including the procedures to be utilized and the Independent Auditor's compensation. The Committee shall also pre-approve audit, non-audit, and any other services to be provided by the Independent Auditor in accordance with such policies as may, from time to time, be adopted by the Committee. The Committee may (a) pre-approve audit and non-audit services based on policies and procedures adopted by the Committee, provided that: (i) the policies and procedures are detailed as to the particular service, (ii) the Committee is informed of each service on a timely basis, (iii) such policies and procedures do not include delegation of the Committee's responsibilities to management, and (iv) such policies and procedures are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report; and/or (v) delegate to one or more of its members the authority to approve in advance all audit or non-audit services to be provided by the Independent Auditor so long as decisions made by such member are presented to the full Committee at the immediately subsequent scheduled meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pre-approval is not necessary for de minimis non-audit services if: (a) the aggregate amount of all such non-audit services provided to the Company constitutes not more than five percent of the total amount of revenues paid by the Company to its auditors during the fiscal year in which the non-audit services are provided; (b) such services were not recognized by the Company at the time of the engagement to be non-audit services; and (c) such services are promptly brought to the attention of the Committee and approved prior to the completion of the audit by the Committee or by one or more members of the Committee who are members of the Board of Directors to whom authority to grant such approvals has been delegated by the Committee.

Audit Reports and Reviews. The Committee shall, in consultation with management and the Independent Auditor, review the results of the annual financial audit and limited quarterly reviews of the Company's financial statements, significant findings thereof, and any other matters required to be communicated by the Independent Auditor under general accepted auditing standards, including, if applicable, the Independent Auditor's summary of any significant accounting, auditing and internal control issues, along with questions, comments and recommendations and management's corrective action plans, if applicable (i.e., the management or internal control letter).

In conjunction with its annual audit and its limited quarterly reviews of the Company's financial statements, the Independent Auditor will review with the Committee any problems or difficulties the Independent Auditor encountered in the course of its work, including any restrictions on the scope of the Independent Auditor's activities, its access to information, or any significant disagreements with management and management's responses to such matters. Management shall notify the Committee when it seeks a second opinion on a significant accounting issue, the Committee shall be responsible for the resolution of any disagreements between management and the Independent Auditor regarding financial reporting.

The Committee shall review with management the consolidated financial statements contained in the Form 10-K and annual report to stockholders, quarterly financial statements on Form 10-Q, including MD&A disclosures, to determine that management is satisfied with the disclosure and content of the financial statements to be presented to the Company's stockholders.
