Ultralife Corporation Receives $7.5 Million Communications Systems Contract

NEWARK, N.Y. September 22, 2022 -- Ultralife Corporation (NASDAQ: ULBI) has received a contract valued at approximately $7.5 million to supply its integrated system of A-320 amplifiers and A-320HVA radio vehicle mounts to a major international defense contractor for an ongoing government/defense modernization program. Deliveries are expected to commence in the fourth quarter of 2022 and continue through the first half of 2023.

“This contract further demonstrates our success in executing a key element of our revenue growth strategy – the broadening of our global presence with international allies by extending our core U.S. government and defense business,” said Michael D. Popielec, Ultralife’s President and Chief Executive Officer. “Our amplifier platform provides a technically advanced building block for the increasingly complex, secure communications systems required for soldier modernization. In this case, our integrated amplifiers and radio vehicle mounts have once again been selected as a critical component of a multi-year communications modernization program.”
